Consignment Process:

Flippin Furniture works on a 90 day contract with a 50/50 split of the final selling price.

Pricing of items will be determined by Flippin Furniture's staff, usually 1/2 of the retail value and taking into account, quality, condition, demand and age of item. We view each consignment as a partnership and acknowledge it is in everyone's interest to price items at a fair market value.

Consigned items are subject to a 20% price reduction after 30 days and a percentage thereafter every 30 days, but not to exceed the 90 day contract.

Consignor may not remove pieces from store during contracted time frame.

Flippin Furniture reserves the right to accept any reasonable offer, discount any item and run sale promotions without notice to consignor.

Home Décor or small furniture pieces can be dropped off for consignment during regular business hours. Large items please call to schedule an appointment for drop off.

Unsold items at the end of 90 day contract will become the property of Flippin Furniture. The consignor is required to keep track of the contract end date and to pick up their items within 5-days of expired contract. The consignor has the option to donate or to pick up items once the contract expires, Flippin Furniture will give you a courtesy call at this point.

Consignor has 90 days from the end of the contract to collect account balance or funds will be forfeited.

Consignor checks will be ready 30 days following the date of the sale. No trades.

REMEMBER: ALL SALES ARE FINAL , NO EXCHANGES AND SOLD AS-IS

Please measure your space. If furniture doesn't fit in your home you are still responsible for the below delivery charges.
